Too Late!

It was a day not unlike most. It was a time when the church would be coming together. At least that's what I thought. You see the door was locked the building had been sold.

I don't remember when it started to happen. I do remember that there was so much enthusiasm when we first started meeting. We had a goodly number of those who attended. We had fellowship with each other outside of our weekly meetings. Everyone could hardly wait until the next meeting time. Why we even had campaigns to invite others. We would go door to door with invitations. We had gospel meetings. What a joy when someone in the community would visit and an even greater joy when someone was baptized!

Then a few of us started missing services occasionally. No I don't mean just going out of town and worshipping there but just too tired or company had come to visit or some other activity that kept me away from attending service. The first few times I was feeling bad but then I found out it just got easier and easier each time to miss. Today I came just to see what was going on. But it was too late. You see others started following my example and stopped attending too. No the preaching was sound (except those sermons that stepped on my toes concerning attendance) and what was taught was right from the Bible. We just all stopped coming because our priorities had changed. I never dreamed this day would come in my lifetime.

Then I stopped and looked at my life. It certainly had not been what It should be. I was the one who went from being excited about coming to services to being one who rarely came.

Then I awoke! Had this been nothing but a dream? No I had awoke to eternity and stood with nothing to say when I was told to go away. Too Late!

What will we say on judgment day? What will be said to us?

OUR BULLETIN

Obviously you have noticed a drastic change in today's Bulletin. This is due to my computer crashing Tuesday morning. I have not been able to locate all the programs necessary to print the Bulletin the usual way. I was able to find another computer that I wasn't using. I have lost a lot of data and email lists that I am afraid will never be retrieved. We have ordered a new computer which the church bought. It will take some time to get information transferred to it, but I am looking forward to having a new updated system.

THANK YOU NOTE

I want to take this time to say "Thank You" for all the acts of kindness shown me during my recent accident. Words cannot express how much I appreciated it. All the prayers, calls, visits, cards and food will never be forgotten. It's great to be part of such a caring and Christian family. I'm getting much better now, and I know it has so much to do with you. Prayers have been answered. Thanks once again, I love you all.

In Christian Love, Dennis Hatcher

Friends:

This small card in no way can express how much your kindness meant to Phillip and myself in our time of sorrow. Your visits to the hospital, the funeral home, the flowers and the wonderful meal you provided for our family gave us comfort in knowing that you were there to support us.

Thanks Again, Kay Atwell family - daughter of Marjorie Perkins
