GOLD MINES

Light travels at more than 186,000 miles per second. Spiritual "light" is equally fast — until it hits a closed mind.
 Your religion is the life you live, not the words you profess.
 God doesn't love you because you are important. You are important because God loves you.
 Deposit God's word in your memory bank, and you'll draw interest for life.
 A Christian shows what he is by what he does with what he has!
 Experience is one thing you can't get on the easy payment plan.

Focused on Christ - Thankful for our Salvation - Glorifying the Lord - Serving through Love - Preaching Christ to the World

We gladly welcome you to our congregation, trusting that – if you are seeking Christ you will find Him here, if sorrowing you will receive comfort and strength here, if troubled in spirit you will gain the blessing of peace here, if discouraged you will rejoice in encouragement and hope here, if friendless you will find companionship and Christian love here. That these and other blessings may be yours is our prayer.

How Do You Look?

It has been said, "If we could see ourselves as often as other see us, we would deny it." It is easy for us to point the finger at the other fellow — to cry, "Foul!" It is so easy to see the other person's faults and fail to see our own. How foolish! Jesus taught concerning this: "And why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but do not consider the plank in your own eye?" (Matthew 7:3). He went on to ask how we could removed a speck from our brother's eye with a plank in our own eye (Matthew 7:4). What to do? He said, "Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck out of your brother's eye" (Matthew 7:5).

It all begins on the inside. Someone wrote, "White-washing the pump will not purify the water." The meaning? No matter how pretty the pump looks, the water is still bad.

People are the same. Just looking good on the outside doesn't purify the heart. Jesus addressed this condition very strongly in Matthew 23:25-28. The scribes and Pharisees had cleaned the outside of the cup and platter, but within they were full of extortion and excel. Jesus told them to cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also. Then He compared His hypocritical audience to whitewashed tombs that seemed beautiful outwardly, but inside were full of dead men's bones. He said they appeared righteous to men, but were full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

How can we avoid this same mistake? We can purify our souls by obeying the truth (I Peter 1:22). Whatever Christ teaches us to do — do it! This will clean us up — inside and out!

LIBRARY DONATION

Willie & Martha Cyphers have donated a book to the church library — the 2015 79th Annual Bible Lectureship book of the Freed-Hardeman Lectures. It is in loving memory of Betty Brunt, Hilda Russell and Ford Smith. We appreciate this gift!!!

SCRTC SUBSCRIBERS - GBN

Just a reminder that the Gospel Broadcasting Network can be seen on SCRTC's cable 37. GBN is unlike any other religious broadcast on TV. The truth of the Word of God on a variety of subjects are taught 24/7. A person could watch this program and learn a lot of Bible instead of the opinions and doctrines of men.

TEST YOUR BIBLE IQ

According to I Corinthians 15, what can not inherit the kingdom of God?

The answer to last week's bible question: Hiram I Kings 9:11

Visitors are always welcome and appreciated !!!!

What Do I Owe My Home Congregation?

Unto the church of my Lord at every locality, I am under solemn obligation to the extent of my ability; but unto my home congregation, I am under special obligations.

1. I want my home congregation to radiate a wholesome influence in the community. Therefore, I owe it the example of a good life. For the church I must "live soberly and righteously and godly" (Titus 2:12).

2. I want the strangers who enter the door of the assembly building to feel at home, to learn to love us, and to return often. They are our guests. I must treat them accordingly. I owe it to them and to the church to show myself friendly (Heb. 13:2). I must not stand back and wait for others to greet them; this I must do (Hebrews 13:2).

3. No congregation can make progress without faithful and efficient leaders. To a certain extent, the members of the church make or break their leaders. To the end that our leaders may be stronger and more efficient, I must give them my support. I must pray for them as long as they are true men. I must not embarrass them in their work (1 Timothy 5:19).

4. My home congregation has financial obligations which are due at regular intervals. Whether I give or do not give, these obligations must be paid. If it is right for my home congregation to pay its obligations each week, it is right for me to give each week. Though circumstances may force me to be absent at times, my contribution should find their way to the treasury of the church (1 Corinthians 16:1-2).

5. I know that the very existence of my congregation depends upon the attendance of its members. In fact, the attendance is the life of the church. For this reason, I must attend the services — every service I possibly can. For all that I have, I would not have it said that my home congregation perished because I would not attend the assemblies (Hebrews 10:25).

6. I want my home congregation to grow, to multiply in numbers. Therefore I must set myself to the noble work of winning souls for Christ. This I can do by preaching and persuading; this I can do by persistent effort; this I can do by bringing others to our meetings (Proverbs 11:30).

7. My home congregation cannot thrive in a frigid atmosphere. I must not by my carelessness allow the church to become a place where hearts are chilled. I must make it a place where hearts are warmed. Therefore I owe it my heart, the warmth of my life, I must forgive and forget.

Wishing to be honest, I must meet my obligations to the best of my ability. I must, with the help that God gives, do my part in the incomparable work of building up the body of Christ.
