FOCUS on one Luke 15:4

What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one which is lost

Why Should We Praise God?

We should praise God for who He is. Young people sing a song that goes, "I will call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised; so shall I be saved from my enemies" (2 Samuel 22:4). Those who have learned of Jehovah agree: "The Lord is great, and greatly to be praised; He is also to be feared above all gods" (1 Chronicles 16:25). A wise man wondered, "Who is like You, O Lord, among the gods? Who is like You, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?" (Exodus 15:11). We praise God for His power (Psalm 21:13). We praise the Lord for the beauty of His holiness (2 Chronicles 20:21) and for His goodness and mercy (Ezra 3:11; Jeremiah 33:11).

The very purpose of life might be summed up as: "Proclaim the praises" of God (1 Peter 2:9).

We should praise God for what He has done. "Praise Him for His mighty acts; praise Him according to His excellent greatness" (Psalm 150:2).

He has made us: "I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; marvelous are Your works, and that my soul knows very well" (Psalm 139:14).

He has delivered us (Exodus 15:1–11; 2 Samuel 22:49–50; Jeremiah 20:13). When Israel's children learned that God had heard their cry and had sent a deliverer (Moses), they "bowed their heads and worshiped" (Exodus 4:31). When Moses learned that God kept "mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin," he "made haste and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshiped" (Exodus 34:7–8). Worship, distilled, is thanksgiving for salvation (Psalm 69:30–32; 86:5, 15; 92:1–8; 95:1–7; 100:4).

He has blessed us. When we take time to count our blessings (James 1:17), it makes us worshipful. It is an unthankful heart that shuns worship. When the eldest servant of Abraham's house played matchmaker for young Isaac, he devised a plan to determine which girl the Lord approved. When the sign was given, with thankful heart he "bowed down his head and worshipped the Lord" (Genesis 24:26, 48, 52).

He has given us His truth (Psalm 138:2). "In God I will praise His word" (Psalm 56:4). "I will praise Your name, for You have done wonderful things; Your counsels of old are faithfulness and truth" (Isaiah 25:1).

He has answered our prayers (Psalm 118:21). So, "praise the Lord, all you Gentiles! Laud Him, all you peoples" (Romans 15:11). "Let everything that has breath praise the Lord" (Psalm 150:6).

"Let us continually offer the sacrifice of praise to God" (Hebrews 13:15).

Join us Sunday as we exalt the name of the Lord!

GREATEST NEEDS

A little more kindness
and a little less greed;

A little more giving
and a little less need;

A little more smile
and a little less frown;

A little less kicking
a man when he's down;

A little more "we"
and a little less "I";

A little more laugh
and a little less cry;

A little more flowers
on the pathway of life;

And fewer on graves
at the end of the strife.
