Vol. 47

April 26, 2015

Number 17

Each time that death invades our lives, our homes, our churches, our communities, and our society we are reminded of how much we need one another.

We need one another to bring comfort, peace, love, and help. We are reminded that what matters most in life isn't things, jobs, bank accounts, personal prestige, or even our own desires.

We are reminded that what matters most is our relationship with God, our relationships with those we love, how we treat one another, and how we are to show love to one another.

We are reminded of the fact that God never intended us to live here forever. We really are strangers and pilgrims on this earth. We are looking for a better place.

We are reminded that we don't control our own schedule. We are reminded of the brevity and uncertainty of life.

We are reminded even in great pain and sorrow that our God is the God of all comfort.

We are reminded that we can only find real peace and meaning for life in Jesus.

(I am always blessed by the writings of my good brother and friend, Jeff Jenkins. I appreciate the above article. He posted it on the Internet without a title. It seems a perfect title would be - "We Are Reminded" Thanks Jeff!!! -WH)

Heart Lines

by Steve Kirby

I WAS NOT COMPLETELY SHOCKED, BUT GREATLY ALARMED! The Bible says that "evil men and seducers [impostors] will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived" [2 Tim. 3:13]. Take a look at that verse again. I want to call your attention particularly to the words "evil," "seducers [impostors]," "deceiving," and "being deceived." Please read the verse again (SLOWLY) and let the specific words that I've emphasized impact your mind and thinking.

Now, with God's word hopefully in your mind, I'll get to what prompted my paragraph heading above. The headline read: "Lesbian teacher: How I Convince Kids to Accept Gay 'Marriage,' Starting at 4 Years Old."

Does that headline get your attention? Are you shocked? Are you greatly alarmed? Would you want your kids or grandkids to attend such a school and have this person as their teacher?

The article is dated Monday, April 20, 2015, so it's current. The article is about a public school teacher in Ontario, Canada. Yes, I know it's Canada, but if "evil men and seducers [impostors]" get their way, how long will it take for this to be "normal" in public schools in America? Here's some excerpts from the article:

...at a homosexual activist conference for teachers earlier this month [the teacher discussed] how she uses her classroom to convince children as young as four to accept homosexual relationships. [the teacher] focused her workshop on what she called the 'power of conversation' for promoting

LGBTQ issues in an elementary classroom... I go from class to class and talk about what 'gay' means, what does 'LGBTQ' mean... I read a [pro-gay child's] book [King and King]... reading "King and King" in the kindergarten class as a springboard to discuss her sexuality with the kids, she got to the part where the two princes become 'married' when one of the boys suddenly shouted out: 'They can't do that! They can't get married. They're two boys.'... And I said, 'Oh, yeah, yeah, they can. It's right here on page 12.'"

Do you like the article so far? I promise, IT GETS MUCH WORSE! By bringing the article to your attention, I do not intend to emphasize one sin over another one. As far as I know, no specific sin is more ugly nor has greater eternal consequences than any other sin. I bring the article to your attention because it's perhaps the most brash, "in-your-face" article I've read regarding the effort to "normalize" homosexuality. Reading the article, I said aloud: "God help us!"
