Bless Our Mothers, Lord

Bless our mothers, Lord, today, For all they do and all they pray, For sleepless nights and patient days, For showing us Your loving ways.

Bless the mothers who have gone, Whose legacy still lingers on, Who taught us faith and how to pray, Who pointed us to You each day.

Bless the mothers yet to be, Give them wisdom, Lord, we plea, Prepare their hearts for what's ahead, May they follow where You've led.

Bless every mother in this place, Cover them with Your sweet grace, May they know how valued they are, To You, O Lord, and near and far.

"Her children arise and call her blessed." – Proverbs 31:28

A Congregation's Gratitude

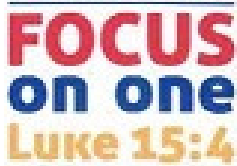

Today we pause as one to say, Thank you, mothers, on this day, For shaping lives and building faith, For demonstrating love and grace.

You are the backbone of our homes, You teach us we're not all alone, You model Christ in word and deed, You plant in us the gospel seed.

We see God's love reflected bright, In how you live your life each night, Thank you for your faithfulness, We pray that God would richly bless.

"As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you." – Isaiah 66:13
