Number 22

You are invited to be with us for Vacation Bible School June 15-18

Wednesday Thursday Friday 6:30 - 8 p.m.
Saturday 10 a.m - Noon (picnic after we close)

Come aboard the Alpha and Omega for the Voyage of a lifetime as we search for the riches of God found in His Son, Jesus Christ.

The apostle John provided us with clues to help us discover these treasures. Each treasure is hidden within an "I Am" statement of Jesus.

Our VBS theme verse tells us that Jesus knows where we must begin our voyage and where it will end: "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last" (Rev. 22:13. He alone can lead us safely through the stormy seas!!

Who was the ruler of Rome when Jesus was born?

The answer to last week's bible question: change stones into bread Matt. 4:3

Visitors are always appreciated and welcomed !!!

Spirituality is not the opposite of Christian service and good works. It is the source of it. People who have their minds set on things above (Col. 3:1) will bear fruit and increase. Their work of faith and labor of love and patience of hope will shine. (I Thess. 1:3)

In the Presence of Greatness

Russell Conwell was noted for his speech, "Acres of Diamonds." He delivered this speech over 5000 times from 1900-1925. That speech has been in book form for a number of years and makes interesting reading. In it, he tells of meeting Abraham Lincoln at the White House to plead the case of a young soldier sentenced to death during the Civil War. Conwell tells of the sense of awe and humility that came over him while he was in the presence of the man who is considered to be one of the greatest presidents in our history.

Most of us recognize greatness and are humbled to be around people who have earned our respect. In their presence, we may find ourselves completely awed and maybe even speechless. We may feel awkward and find ourselves fidgeting from a bad case of "nerves" or feel ourselves getting hot.

In scripture, when we read of men in the presence of God, we find that they were awestruck and humbled. Job was humbled, Isaiah declared himself a man of unclean lips and the apostle John was compelled to fall down in worship. Those who experienced the presence of God were forever changed and showed only the utmost reverence for Him.

How different this is from our day and time! It is not unusual to hear God's name taken in vain and divine things taken lightly. As a result, we often bring that same disrespect into worship. Do we not realize that we are in the presence of Him who created all things? If we recognize God's greatness, as we should, we will come to Him in awe of His wonderful works and humbled that He is willing to accept our worship. This will be reflected in our attitude, the attention we give to each item of worship and the earnestness of our efforts. Brethren, we are in the presence of greatness...greater than an-anything man can imagine. "The Lord is in his temple, let all the earth keep silence before Him" (Heb. 2:20).

Memorial Day

"And these are the names of the mighty men who David had" (2 Samuel 23:8).

Certainly there is a time for the remembering and recognition of those who serve their country faithfully. David had a valiant army of men who were led by devoted captains.

But as a great military leader, he knew the value of recognizing his men. Within the context of mentioning of these men, there is an indication of the kind of loyalty and devotion his men had for David. David remembers how the water from a well in Bethlehem tasted and longed for it. Three mighty men of David broke through the lines of the Philistines and brought David some water from that well.

David realized the serious nature of what had taken place and he could not drink the water. Instead, he poured the water out in worship to God.

Such devotion and bravery brings one to give himself up for the one he loves.

What could we do in the service of the Lord if we had such devotion and bravery? Do you love the Lord?

Each month of May, the U.S. pauses to remember the gallant and brave men and women who have given their lives for this great country. Americans enjoy the blessings of living in a free democracy. Let us be thankful for those who have given their lives and those who help preserve our freedoms.

Yet, at the same time, may we rekindle our allegiance to the One who died to set us free from sin.
