Goldmines –Quotes & Quips

If it is true that "to err is human" - some are apparently more human than others.

To err is human, but to remain in error
is stupid.

The longer a person remains in error
the more certain he becomes that he is right.

On a church sign:

Heaven: An Eternity Without Sunset

Hell: An Eternity Without Sunrise

God doesn't call the qualified; He qualifies the called.

A million dollars and a bale of hay
Will be worth the same on Judgment Day!

Learn from the mistakes of others.
You won't live long enough to make all of them yourself. -via BulletinGold

You are invited to be with us for Vacation Bible School June 15-18

Wednesday Thursday Friday 6:30 - 8 p.m.
Saturday 10 a.m - Noon (picnic after we close)

Come aboard the Alpha and Omega for the Voyage of a lifetime as we search for the riches of God found in His Son, Jesus Christ.

The apostle John provided us with clues to help us discover these treasures. Each treasure is hidden within an
"I Am" statement of Jesus.

Our VBS theme verse tells us that Jesus knows where we must begin our voyage and where it will end: "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last" (Rev. 22:13). He alone can lead us safely through the stormy seas!!

TEST YOUR BIBLE IQ

To which tribe of Israel did the apostle Paul belong?

The answer to last week's bible question: Caesar Augustus Luke 2:1

Visitors are always appreciated and welcomed !!!

Cowardice asks the question – is it Safe? Expediency asks the question – is it Politically Correct? Vanity asks the question – is it Popular? But the Conscience asks the question – is it Right?

And there comes a time when one must take a position that is neither Safe, nor Politically Correct, nor Popular, but one must take it because it's RIGHT! - copied

Thought for the week

Genesis 3:12- -"And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree and I did eat."

Look what you made me do! How often do we hear this statement? Long ago in the Garden of Eden the first man and woman sinned. Eve had her excuse: "The devil made me do it". Adam had his excuse: "The woman made me do it" (Genesis 3). Later, we find Aaron building a golden calf and with the people of God, bowing down before it and he had his excuse: "The people made me do it". In 1 Samuel 15 we find King Saul sinning and again his excuse: "The people made me do it". The practice of blaming someone else for what we do began a long time ago and it continues even now in our present age.

We must be careful that we do not place ourselves in compromising situations where worldly living, lust, and self gratification are indulged in (Romans 12:2, 1 Thessalonians 5:22, Romans 12:21, James 4:7, 1 Corinthians 15:33, 1 John 2:15-17).). If we, for whatever reasons, choose to participate in activities where sinful conduct or questionable activity is taking place, make no mistake about it, it is very likely that the day will come when we too will say: "Look what they made me do" in an effort to justify ourselves.

The great tragedy of this is that countless numbers of people will one day stand before God in judgment unprepared (Acts 17:30-31). I do not pretend to know exactly what will take place on that great day or how the judgment will be conducted but I can say with certainty that it is an appointment that has been made for us and we will keep it. Having said this, I can envision vast numbers of people attempting to shift the responsibility for being unprepared to others. It might be directed at a preacher or teacher who did not teach the truth according to God's word (Matt. 15:9, 2 John 9, Gal. 1:6-9, 1 John 4:1). Others will have placed themselves in compromising situations thereby attempt to shift blame to someone else (1 Thess. 5:17). Still others may try to shift blame to parents who did not set the right example before them and did not train them in the nurture and admonition of the Lord (Eph. 6:4, Prov. 22:6). Yes, the excuses will go on and on but they all come down to one thing: "Look what you made me do". Excuses may be offered but all of them will avail nothing. It still remains that each one of us as individuals will eventually answer for ourselves (2 Cor. 5:10, 2 Tim. 2:15).

A Useful Vessel

It's not what we keep but what we share,
Not what we have but what we spare,
Not what we clasp but what we loose,
Not what we hide but what we use.

A vessel He will make of you,
If small or great, 'twill surely do —
Great joy and peace will always fill
The one who's yielded to His will.
