SHARING SORROWS

Our dear friend and sister in Christ, Brenda Sullivan went home to be with the Lord Thursday night. Our friendship began with her and family from one of our previous works in Fairview, TN. Also it is a small world as our Fran Meers knew Brenda and her twin sister Linda from high school in Nashville back in the 60's. Our sympathy, prayers and love to her family. Funeral will be today at 2:00 at Williamson Memorial Funeral Home in Franklin, TN

TEST YOUR BIBLE IQ

What does the book of Proverbs say is more valuable than gold, silver or rubies?

The answer to our question last week:
Timothy Acts 16:1

People Do Not Drift Toward Holiness

Apart from grace-driven effort, people do not gravitate toward godliness, prayer, obedience to Scripture, faith, and delight in the Lord.

We drift toward compromise and call it tolerance; we drift toward disobedience and call it freedom; we drift toward superstition and call it faith. - - D. A. Carson

Welcome to our visitors!!!

Always grateful for your presence!!!

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!!!

We'll See You After School

by Steve Higginbotham

When I was in third grade, I had two boys threaten to beat me up after school one day. They were the Ciccarelli twins – tough guys (it still sends a cold chill down my spine even when I type their name!) I couldn't understand it. Why did these boys want to beat up a charming, precious little third-grader (according to my mother)? It didn't make sense to me; I barely knew them. But one thing I knew was that they were going to be waiting for me after school.

And sure enough, after school there they stood waiting. However, I had all day to think about their threat and I took action. I rounded up all my friends, and we all walked home from school together. In fact, we walked right past the Ciccarelli brothers, and they didn't say a word.

Now, to the point of this story. Why is it that a third-grader may know how to deal with bullying and opposition better than grown Christians? What do I mean? Well, when the Devil begins to pick on some Christians, and make their lives difficult, what's one of the first things that some Christians do? They stop attending church services. They withdraw from everyone. Instead of drawing on the strength of their brothers and sisters in Christ, they choose to face their enemy all alone.

As a third-grader, I knew that I was going to get "beat up" if I was found all by myself. So I surrounded myself with friends, and avoided the beating. Seems there's a lesson in there for us.

What Controls You?

by Lance Cordle

"Do you not know that if you present yourselves as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey; either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness?" (Romans 6:16, ESV)

If you consider a broad range of people you will find them motivated in life by a variety of factors. Each person's everyday choices and decisions are steered by one primary, motivating factor. The person may not even realize what that factor is, but when they stop and consider the decisions that bring them to the point where they are in life, they see it. The realization may not be a pleasant experience, but it can be life-changing.

Have you sat down and analyzed your decisions in life? Have you honestly asked why you have done the things you have done? Pause for a moment and ask if any of the following things could be driving your life. I have listed many things which lead one away from God. I have also listed some things which have their proper place in one's priorities (behind Christ). For emphasis, I have placed the lordship of Christ last. Keep in mind, these things are to be honestly and soberly assessed. If the one that best fits you is the lordship of Christ, rejoice!—You are doing well. But if the motivating force of your life is sinful, or is a misplaced priority, please change . . . Now, what is controlling your life?

Popularity?	Greed?	Fear?
Love for family?	Addiction?	Pleasure?
Physical fitness?	Anger?
Diminished self-esteem?	Revenge?
Jealousy?	Intellectual pride?	Lust?
Ambition?	Anxiety?	Lordship of Christ?
