TEST YOUR BIBLE IQ

Who told the soldiers who had guarded Jesus' tomb to lie and say that the disciples had stolen the body of Jesus?

The answer to our question last week: Samson Judges 14:8-9

A special welcome to our visitors!!!

Fenced In or Fenced Out?

by Ron Adams

There was a playground for children surrounded by a secure fence with only one gate. The children loved to play there. One day someone said, "They are penned in—like animals, like prisoners. That's not good. Let's remove the fence and free them from such confines."

The fence was removed. No more confinement. No more prison-like barriers.

Then a parent noticed that the children were only playing near the center of the playground. Why weren't they using all of the space. In questioning the children, they found out that the children didn't feel secure without the fence. It became apparent that the fence was protective and restrictive. It kept them inside where it was safe, and kept out what was harmful.

BURDENSOME OR WHOLESOME?

A similar misconception is held by some when it comes to God's children. They believe the restrictions and prohibitions of the Lord's commandments keep them penned up, taking the joy out of living. Some say, "All the fun is taken away."

The truth is, His commands are not burdensome; they are wholesome. They protect His followers from harm from without, and keep them from harming themselves by wandering off.

For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments; and His commandments are not burdensome.

1 John 5:3

But the Lord is faithful, and He will strengthen and protect you from the evil one.

2 Thessalonians 3:3

Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to make you stand in the presence of His glory blameless with great joy.

Jude 24

TEMPORARY OR ETERNAL?

One who is always occupied with the desire and ambition for what this life has to offer does not have his affections set on things eternal.

Do not love the world nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the boastful pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world.

1 John 2:15-16

Therefore if you have been raised up with Christ, keep seeking the things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your mind on the things above, not on the things that are on earth.

Colossians 3:1-2

Peace is the presence of God in our lives, not the absence of trouble.

The best exercise program is to walk with God!

When Satan reminds you of your past, remind him of your future.
