In Loving Memory of

Laura Marie Brooks

August 6, 1939 - September 13, 2024

Our hearts are saddened that we have lost another dear family member of this congregation. Laura and her late husband Robert were loyal members, faithful to be here to worship and the study of God’s Word. She always expressed to me her love to the church here when she was unable to attend. Robert passed away in Nov. 2015. A few years ago, Laura’s health declined, and she moved to her daughter Rhonda Quenzer’s home five years ago when she became her loving caregiver.

Laura was first and foremost a Christian. Her faith in God provided her the foundation for life, to persevere through trials and tribulations. We knew her as caring, giving and loving wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She also was a “momma” to many. This world has been blessed by the life of Laura. She will be greatly missed and the memories of her life will live on in her family and church family. We express our sympathy to Rhonda (Collin) Quenzer, her brother Dale (Michelle) Brooks, her nine grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, two sisters Margaret Hendrickson and Betty Breshear, one brother Tom Atteberry, sister-in-law Bessie Brooks (member here at HC) and several nieces and nephew. Her funeral will be Tues. 1 p.m. at Brooks Funeral Home conducted by her brother-in-law Walter Breshear. Till we meet again Laura. Love and prayers... Wayne
