Hallelujah, What a Savior!

We often sing a song in our worship assemblies that bears the title given above. Like many other songs that we sing, the aim of this song is to exalt Jesus, our Savior, and to remind us of what He did for us. The need to exalt Christ has never been more apparent than in our present society. Christ has been reduced by many to a mere man who lived among men. Others have tried to diminish Christ's accomplishments by exalting others (i.e., Muhammad) above Him. Nevertheless, we know of a certainty that Christ deserves, has earned, and has been given a position of great honor and dignity. After Christ was raised from the dead and once He had ascended to heaven, we are informed that God set him "far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named" (Eph. 1:21). Knowing this, we should strive in song, in prayer, and in life to exalt the Christ.

Let us consider some aspects of Christ's life and His work that motivate us to say, "Hallelujah, what a Savior!"

Christ was and is the....

...Seeking Savior (Luke 19:10; Matthew 11:28-29)

...Serving Savior (Mark 10:45; John 13:5)

...Selfless Savior (1 Timothy 2:6; Titus 2:14)

...Sinless Savior (1 Peter 2:22; Hebrews 4:15)

...Submitting Savior (Luke 22:42; John 4:34)

...Slain Savior (Luke 9:22; John 19:30)

...Successful Savior (2 Corinthians 2:14; 1 Corinthians 15:57)

Take some time to contemplate these and what they really mean to you.

Truly, every tongue should proclaim, "Hallelujah, what a Savior!"

Timeless words given by Moses to Joshua are still relevant for us. - Wayne

"Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

Joshua 1:9

Very similar to Paul's words in 2 Timothy 1:7
