This Much I Know
A “Know So” Religion from First John

Some say, “We can’t know anything.” Others seem to think they know everything. The truth is somewhere in the middle, for we can know the truth (John 8:32; 1 John 2:21), but we will not understand many things until we get to heaven (1 John 3:1–2).

Consider fifteen “knows” in 1 John. We can know the following:

1. “We know Him” (1 John 2:3–4).
2. “We are in Him” (1 John 2:5).
3. Who is born of God (1 John 2:29).
4. We will be like Him (1 John 3:1–3).
5. “He was manifested to take away our sins” (1 John 3:5).
6. We have “passed from death to life” (1 John 3:14).
7. “We are of the truth” (1 John 3:19).
8. “He abides in us” (1 John 3:24).
9. The Spirit of God abides (1 John 4:2, 3, 6).
10. “Everyone that loves knows God” (1 John 4:7–8).
11. “We abide in him” (1 John 4:13).
12. “We love the children of God” (1 John 5:2–3).
13. We have eternal life (1 John 5:11–13).
14. He hears us (1 John 5:14–15).
15. The whole world lies in wickedness (1 John 5:19).

He Has Not Left That Open to Us

A man who was merely a man and said the sort of things Jesus said would not be a great moral teacher. He would either be a lunatic - on a level with the man who says he is a poached egg - or else he would be the devil of hell. You must make your choice. Either this man was, and is, the Son of God: or else a madman or something worse. You can shut Him up for a fool, you can spit at Him and kill Him as a demon; or you can fall at His feet and call Him Lord and God. But let us not come with any patronizing nonsense about His being a great human teacher. He has not left that open to us. He did not intend to.

Is the Devil Omniscient?

by Todd Clippard

The devil is not, nor can he be, omniscient. If he were omniscient, he would be God. A passage pertinent to this discussion is 1 Corinthians 2:6-8, which says, "Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought: but we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory: which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory."

There can be no doubt the devil was the driving force behind those who hated Christ and had Him killed. Paul's statement here notes that if the truth had been known, Jesus would not have been killed. Think about this for a moment —the only way all men could be saved would be for Jesus to die in their place. If the devil had known this, he would have done everything in his power to stop it!

Consider also Hebrews 2:14-15: "Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage."

Jesus, through His death and resurrection, destroyed the power of the devil. If the devil were omniscient, he would have known this ahead of time and never allowed Jesus to be crucified.

In like fashion, if the devil were omniscient, he would know exactly how to tempt us at all times in order to get us away from God. I believe the devil only uses what has worked in the past, and when we learn to conquer that particular temptation, he tries something else.

The Seven Sayings of Jesus while on the Cross

"Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." Luke 23:34

"Verily I say unto thee, Today shalt thou be with me in Paradise." Luke 23:43

He spoke to His mother, "Woman, behold thy son!" Then He said to the disciple, "Behold, thy mother!" John 19:26-27

"Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" That is, "My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken me?" Matthew 27:46 Mark 15:34

"I thirst!" John 19:28

"It is finished!" John 19:30

"Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit" Luke 23:46
