WHOEVER YOU ARE

Whoever you are, there is some younger person who thinks you are perfect.

Whoever you are, there is some work that won't get done unless you do it.

Whoever you are, there is someone who would miss you if you were gone.

Whoever you are, there is a reason to become better than you are.

Whoever you are, there is a place to be filled that you alone can fill.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your father in Heaven (Matthew 5:16)

What Does God Expect From Me?

Modern religion has tried to make Christianity "user-friendly" by taking a marketing approach to recruiting new members. Popular TV preachers never use the "S" word - sin! Churches openly trumpet a "come as you are" approach; and they mean casual both in dress and in lifestyle. Today's pulpit mutes repentance and shouts self-esteem. Hell is old-fashioned. Feel-good is in. Life change is out. God is remade in man's image.

Jesus took a different approach. His religion is high-stakes: "Whoever of you does not forsake all that he has cannot be My disciple" (Luke 14:33). We risk everything to gain everything.

Christ was up-front with people. He put nothing in the fine print - no "gotcha" clauses to be discovered later. He said simply, "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it" (Luke 9:23-24).
